

Tax Policy

The Company realizes the role and responsibility of being a good taxpayer, which is essential for the development of the country. The Company has established a management process, tax planning, and tax payment in accordance with the law. Therefore, the Company has established a tax policy to control possible risks and to comply with tax laws in order for the Company to receive appropriate tax benefits, protect the Company's reputation and image, and maximize the value of shareholders, as follows:

1. The Company has always adhered to and complied with all relevant laws, conducted business in accordance with standards, and operated in accordance with the intent of the law.
2. The Company has designated responsible persons and continuously promoted and supported such responsible persons to attend training and study tax knowledge in order to provide accurate tax information in accordance with the facts of the business.
3. The Company has tax planning management and the use of various tax privileges to pay taxes in an appropriate amount and in accordance with the law, including using the correct tax structure that does not lead to tax evasion.
4. The Company has correctly submitted taxes or requested tax refunds within the specified time frame.
5. The Company has planned, studied, and analyzed the tax impacts for new transactions or reviewed when there is a new law.
6. The Company has provided knowledge and consultation to employees within the Company about taxes in order to operate in accordance with tax laws.
7. The Company has considered hiring tax consultants with expertise and provided consultation when necessary to ensure transparency and compliance with the law.

-Mrs. Wanarat Khumngern-

(Mrs. Wanarat Khumngern)

Deputy Managing Director (Accounting and Finance)