

Announcement

At AKP 03/2566-002

Sustainable Development Policy

Akki Prakarn Public Company Limited operates its business with the awareness of the importance of sustainable development, which means management that is committed to making operations consistent with the corporate vision of "Customer Centric" by using it as a guideline for the organization's operations to cover all dimensions, including economics, society, and the environment, under the principles of good governance to operate its business in the group to promote the quality of life of customer groups and stakeholders in the value chain with transparency, good safety and hygiene standards, sustainable coexistence with communities, and the care and conservation of natural resources and the environment. Therefore, the company has set guidelines for operating in terms of corporate sustainability as follows:

1. Focus on developing business processes for all stakeholders in line with the organization's main mission, adhering to the principles of good corporate governance, transparency, treating workers equally and taking into account human rights principles throughout the value chain, taking into account all stakeholders.
2. Promote organizational culture in creating awareness of sustainable organizational development, encouraging employees at all levels to work with honesty, morality and ethics, risk management, social and environmental responsibility, until it becomes organizational culture, as well as taking care of employees' well-being, promoting a working atmosphere and environment so that employees are happy at work along with developing their potential to work effectively in response to the organization's goals.
3. Promote social and environmental responsibility operations, promote the process in the principles of corporate social and environmental responsibility operations (CSR in process), including management operations to prevent or mitigate impacts on the environment effectively in every step of the work process under the value chain, especially in terms of greenhouse gases, efficient use of electricity and oil, economical use of water resources, and waste management to prevent environmental impacts.

4. Support and encourage employees at all levels and stakeholders in all sectors to participate in social responsibility activities/ projects (CSR) , jointly support activities and operations for employees at all levels to instill awareness and behavior in sustainable development (Sustainability Development) in every work process of the organization.
5. Promote and support the development process and create business, social and environmental innovations. Promote and support the implementation of development and the application of innovations to support business operations, including social and environmental aspects, to create shared value between the organization and society (Creating Shared Value).
6. Promote and support personnel development. Promote and support personnel development operations at all levels to effectively develop the potential and performance of personnel at all levels and to create new skill sets, which are knowledge that support personnel development to be ready to adapt to technologies and innovations that will play a role in the organization in the future.

The company would like to ask all employees to join forces and be a part in helping to preserve the environment, taking into account the collective good and in line with the sustainable development policy. It also encourages business partners to participate in implementing the company's sustainable development policy.

Announced on March 13, 2023

-Mr. Vanchai Luengviriya-

(Mr. Vanchai Luengviriya)

Managing Director